Fire alarm marks opening of Lacombe extension

The fire alarm was sounded in the new Albert Lacombe school addition last Wednesday evening and the large crowd assembled in the gymnasium greeted the shrill ringing with cheers and applause! The Hon. Lou Hyndman, minister of education, sounded the alarm to declare the school extension officially open.

Earlier, Mr. Hyndman told the audience of parents and invited guests: "I have met with trustees of both St. Albert school districts, and I think I can say the education of your children is in good hands."

Mr. Hyndman said especially for elementary students there is a certain "Magic" in school. "Everything is new and exciting. The first six years in school are crucial years, this is when values are set."

Vince Maloney, superintendent of schools, St. Albert public school district, noted the new addition was the result of several years planning. "Many people were consulted before this school was built and many schools were visited by trustees and teaching staff."

Mr. Maloney added that 20 years from now, open area schools may be "dead ducks." "But you have to take chances," he said, noting that the larger school districts are building nothing but this type of school. Mr. Maloney said the Lacombe addition is not accompletely open plan; it was designed to allow regular classroom instruction.

He commented the reason the district went ahead with this kind of design was because it "looked like the best kind of plan to do the job of education we wanted done -- not to please the architects or trustees."

Mr. Maloney said in a happy situation children achieve way beyond expectations. "We want to get the child to enjoy school, we hope that this will happen here."

One of the things the school's teaching staff hopes to accomplish is to get the children to learn how to use the library. "It is vitally important that they learn to learn -- not memorize facts," the superintendent concluded.

Chairman of the board of trustees, Dave Fraser, noted the 22,807 sq. ft. addition has more than doubled the size of the school. He said the school was built for $14.88 per sq. ft., which is under the allowable grant. Mr. Fraser added architect George Chernenko took every advantage he could to bring the cost in under the grant.

"In St. Albert we get a lot more out of the foundation program than we put in; I guess we should thank the rest of the taxpayers in the province," Mr. Fraser said.

Principal of the school,

Real Binette, said he and his staff are very grateful for the parent volunteers who put in many hours in the school library and doing clerical work. "A group of ladies put on a bake sale and tea which resulted in $196 being presented to the school," he added.

Mr. Binette said the distance between theory and practice is a giant step for man. "We don't feel we have lost anything by having an open-area school," he said. He noted there is a great deal of departmentalization at Albert Lacombe. "Maybe we should revise this, we are not sure. We need time to discuss this." The principal added "at Lacombe we emphasize learning -- not teaching."

Others invited to take part in the program were Reverend Father J. Joly, who gave the invocation; Mayor Ray Gibbon, who brought greetings from the Town of St. Albert and M.L.A. Ernie Jamison, who introduced the Hon. Lou Hyndman.

Students from grades 4, 5 and 6 presented several choral selections. After the program refreshments, provided by Mrs. Shandro's SAHS home-ec. class, were served, and guests had an opportunity to tour the school.

Students from grades 4, 5 and 6 added a musical touch to the program at Albert Lacombe school last Wednesday evening. This group is under the direction of Bertha Kennedy. About 250 persons attended the official opening of the school extension.

The Hon. Lou Hyndman pulls the fire alarm to declare the Albert Lacombe School addition officially open. Don LaBelle, vice-chairman of St. Albert public school board, looks on.

Plans to start nursery

Mrs. Peter Smerdon would like to hear from mothers of young children who are interested in setting up a nursery school.

The mother of two youngsters, age 2 1/2 and four, she found there were no vacancies for her children in pre-school classes when the family moved to St. Albert recently.

She is interested in Monessori, but found that the parents she contacted in this regard found the cost of such a program prohibitive.

She is now thinking of starting a nursery school on a small scale in her home and would like to hear from interested mothers. Mrs. Smerdon can be reached at 599-8975.

Children's Ward Fire chief offers tips for safe Christmas

Over four years the Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club have donated $900 worth of equipment to the children's ward at Sturgeon General Hospital.

The club chose the project and made their first contribution before the hospital opened. In addition to providing equipment, the women also visit the ward and conduct a story hour every Thursday afternoon, a service which Miss Betty Drury, director of nursing, says is greatly appreciated.

Through the efforts of the Newcomers, the children's ward has a color television set, high chairs, baby walkers, gates, tables and chairs, plus the new items added this week.

There are further and substantial items to be delivered on December 21st, when Santa will join the Newcomers to help put on a Christmas party for the children in hospital.

"Now that we're coming into the colder weather and the festive season, we would like to caution people to be extra safety minded," St. Albert Fire Chief Fred Tetarenko told the Gazette yesterday.

Mr. Tetarenko says this is the time to have a close look at all heating appliances to make sure they are working properly and clean the filters.

Christmas decorations should be fireproof and residents are advised to turn off tree lights before leaving the home. Mr. Tetarenko said some of the most serious home fires are caused by cigarette butts, dropped smouldering on couches. He advises all hosts to check cushions and upholstered furniture very carefully before retiring for the night after having entertained friends in the home. Ashtrays should be emptied into a metal container with a lid -- never dumped into the kitchen garbage can.

Candles have a special place in the home this season, but left unattended, too close to curtains and in the reach of children, they can cause a serious fire. Make sure you have proper holders for all candles.

"No fire starts by itself" says Mr. Tetarenko. "The major cause of fire is human error."

Christmas morning discard all wrapping papers immediately, do not leave them sitting in a corner of the basement. "And parents should make certain their children are being looked after by a capable babysitter when they go on their busy rounds of holiday visiting; never leave small children alone in the home."

Chief Tetarenko and the St. Albert fire department wish all residents of the town a very merry Christmas and a fire-free 1972.

The Parenteau basement, at 8 Sorrel Crescent, is taking on the appearance of a warehouse as huge piles of clothing, toys, canned foods and staples are being sorted and packed. This is Kinette Christmas Hamper headquarters; close to 50 hampers have to be filled for delivery on December 22. Donations are still being accepted. Can you contribute? Then please call Vera Parenteau at 599-8186 or Linda Stewart, 23 St. Vital Ave., 599-5122.

Little Anita Arcand tries out a brand new walker in the playroom of the children's ward at Sturgeon General Hospital. Showing her how to make it go is Bunny Ferguson, president of the Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club. Looking over some wall plaques, which illustrate children's stories, are Sheila Cooper and Myrna Derieu, visiting committee. Betty Drury, director of nursing and June Leggett, Welcome Wagon hostess. A record player, two more high chairs, two walkers and an assortment of wall plaques and pictures were presented on Monday afternoon.

Sheila Ross receives MA

A pretty determined young woman received her MA degree at the fall convocation of the University of Alberta, held at the Jubilee Auditorium recently.

Sheila Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Ross was awarded a MA in English; she received her BA in 1966.

The going has not been easy for Sheila; but this never stopped her. Miss Ross became an arthritic at the age of four; she spent three years as a patient in Banff hospital and took part of her first year of school there.

Sheila attended St. Albert school up to the sixth grade; then she went to Tucson, Arizona where she completed grades 6 - 9 in between several major operations. She completed her high school education at St. Albert High.

Miss Ross underwent surgery again one month before convocation; she will be back at the university after Christmas, working on her masters degree in comparative literature. She says she is not yet fully decided what comes after this; she may write or possibly teach.

To Sheila and her family, congratulations; not only on her academic achievements, but, more importantly, on her courage.

Sheila Ross receives her MA degree from Louis Desrochers, Chancellor U of A at the Fall Convocation. Seated in centre is Max Wyman, president of the U of A.

Friends and relatives were in attendance at the Fall Convocation of the University of Alberta to watch Sheila Ross receive her MA degree. Pictured with Sheila are Mrs. Vandergag, Shirley Jamison, Alice Ross, Marg Armstrong, Mary Kelly, Ernie Jamison, Mrs. Sadie Ross, Mr. Neil Ross, Neil J. Ross and Mr. and Mrs. E. Blodgett.

SAHS staff discuss school procedures at board meeting

St. Albert High School Principal Ross Johnston and Terry Wispiński, co-ordinator of guidance, St. Albert school district #3, were present at the December 6 meeting of the Catholic school board to outline school procedures.

Mr. Wispiński presented a detailed report dealing with the SAHS registration procedures. He noted as the high school program is semestered, there are two major entry points; one in September, the other in February. The program for both semesters is decided by May, however, Mr. Wispiński noted, there may be some adjustments after this time, due to various reasons.

Grade eight students entering grade nine are familiarized with the program by the high school staff, registration takes place in June, Mr. Wispiński said.

Grade nine students entering grade ten are given initial information concerning the grade ten program through the guidance department. A high school hand book is made available to them and future grade ten students are registered in June. In May, Mr. Wispiński said, the guidance staff visits Camilla and Sturgeon Heights schools to distribute handbooks and explain their contents. In June these schools are revisited by the staff for registration of students.

All prospective grade 11 and 12 students are given the handbook in May; they have about two - three weeks to look over the program before they are asked to register, Mr. Wispiński said. Students are allowed five days at the beginning of each semester to effect changes in their program.

St. Albert school district #3 also sends students to St. Joseph's High School in Edmonton. Basically, two groups of students are affected; those transferring from grade nine into the special vocational grade ten program and those transferring from grade 10 and 11 into regular technical or vocational high school programs.

Initial information concerning the program offered at St. Joseph's is made available to SAHS students in January through group discussions conducted by the guidance staff. This is followed up in February by individual sessions for those students expressing a desire to attend St. Joseph's. Staff from St. Joseph's visit SAHS to provide students with further information and return to the school the following week to conduct registrations.

Both Mr. Wispiński and Mr. Johnston said there is a strong emphasis on communication with the parents at SAHS. A parents' night is held in November to give parents the opportunity to discuss the program with the staff. Mr. Johnston said he is convinced the school should have more than one or two parents' nights per year. "We should perhaps do this once a month, we would like to get the parents into the school on an informal basis," Mr. Johnston said his teachers are willing to come in at night to meet with the parents. "We feel that parental involvement is most important."

There is also a considerable amount of written communication going out from the school, Mr. Johnston noted. Report cards are issued four times per year, two of which, at mid-semester, are of a subjective nature in part, whereby teachers will comment on students, note days absent, etc.

In addition to the above, individual teachers are urged to contact parents whenever a concern arises, Mr. Johnston said.

Other materials going out to parents of high school students include copies of student time tables, teacher reports on underachievers, ment, reports on student absences and lateness and copies of student registration changes.

Mr. Wispiński said he would like to see more communication with the home and recommended more funds and secretarial staff be allocated to the high school in order to provide closer liaison between school and the home.

Mr. Johnston noted that last year the high school was using in excess of $50 per month for postage sending reports and letters to parents. In reply to trustee Ernie Howrath's suggestion that some parents find it difficult to contact the school and perhaps the district should be looking at parent advisory committees, Mr. Johnston said he has had some "sad" experiences with home and school associations. Mr. Howrath would like to see committees set up where parents with similar interests could discuss concerns amongst themselves.

Mr. Wispiński recommended that students from Camilla and Sturgeon Heights schools be bused in to register at SAHS at the same time local student register. "This way they can talk with the people who will be teaching the courses they are interested in," he said.

Gibbons council approves new drugstore

Gibbons village council, meeting in regular session December 8, passed a motion allowing a drugstore owner to build a drugstore in Gibbons. The motion specified that no other business of this kind be permitted until such time that the population warrants more than one store of this nature.

The municipal inspectors' report was read in which the authorities noted the village's affairs were in order and extended congratulations on the new office.

A bylaw, allowing for the annexation of 126 acres south of the present boundary was passed by council. R. Smith gave an interesting talk on the recreational board, outlining what this board is proposing to do in the future. Mr. Smith is the council representative on the board. He feels that all organizations should back this group as much as possible.

Council discussed the policing of the village and requested more information from police authorities as soon as possible.

The new trailer tax was discussed and it was decided to have the initial survey of trailers in the village done by outside help, with the village office to carry on from there. The licence is now based on the size, age and additions of each trailer. The well at the river was discussed and plans for al-

RURAL RECREATION

By Carl Royan
LAMOREUX:
I attended a meeting of the Lamoureux Hall Board on Tuesday, Dec. 7 where recreational facilities and programs were discussed.
The board is doing an excellent job of renovating the hall and deserve all the support they can get.

At this meeting I was informed that there is interest in starting an arts and crafts club in the Lamoureux district. Anyone interested could call Mrs.
Irene Villeneuve at 543-4333
HOCKEY:

Hockey is now in full swing with players ranging from under 10 to as old as the senior teams will let them play. The games of eachage group are very exciting so let's have lots of fan support for the players. It is especially important for a boy to have his parents watching and the youngsters always seem to give it a little extra when mom and dad are there, so we'll see you at the next game.
DANCING:

The first session of the dance instruction clinic has been set for 8 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 16 at the MD building in Morinville. The dates for the rest of the sessions will be set at this time. Anyone missing the first meeting, but wishing to attend the rest could contact me at 424-6276 or 256-3321 for the rest of the dates.

The recreation board has authorized the purchase of tools for the purpose of tool-ing leather. Any club that wishes to borrow these tools for a course can contact me at 424-6276 or 256-3321.

If there are any other items that a club would like to have and that could be bought by the recreation board and circulated to clubs contact me and we will see if it is feasible.

I have not had much response to the idea of a senior basketball league being formed. There are two teams but more are necessary to have a good league. If there are any other interested groups, let me know.

Local ACLD organizes

A founding meeting of the Sturgeon - St. Albert Association for Children with Learning Disabilities was held in St. Albert this week.
At present the organization will be a branch of the Edmonton Organization and will cover the area of the Town of St. Albert, MD of Sturgeon, Towns of Morin-ville and Legal as well as the smaller villages and towns within the MD of Sturgeon.

The group is primarily concerned with the children of average or above average intelligence who have learning disabilities. These educational handicaps very often show up in a child's inability to read and may easily be confused with lack of attention, laziness or unwillingness to co-operate.

Members of the provisional board include the interim president Dick Wilson, interim vice president Geoff Goodwin and members of the board Bill Vaness, Dave Thomas, Ruth Wilson,
Donna Draglic, Ruth Horn,
and Annette Delb of St. Albert and Audrey Graham of Morinville. Mr. and Mrs.
Bob Held of the Edmonton Association for Children with Learning Disabilities attended the meeting to give their assistance to the founding organization.

The group is interested in hearing from parents of children with learning disabilities. Anyone requesting further information may contact Mrs. Wilson 599-7432, Dave Thomas 599-
7768, or Mrs. Horn at 599-6723.

Boy Scouts take to woods

Twenty-seven boys of the 5th St. Albert scout troop took off on an overnight winter camp-out two weeks ago.

The patrols took a while getting their areas set up for the night and gathering wood for the fires.

The boys served supper at 11 p.m., and then settled down for the night. They soon realized that a couple of trees don't last all night and worked in relays to keep the night fire burning.

This was the first camp-out that the boys have tried in the winter; they soon agreed there was no comparison with other camps and summer camps.

The leaders were kept busy helping the young patrols keep up a wood supply.
Supper and breakfast were cooked over open fires.

The boys are busy planning the next winter overnight campout.

Western Movers goalie, Jim Bowman, makes a fine stop on Tom Ball (11) of the Calgary Mount Royal College Cougars with team-mate Bill Fraser looking for a rebound. Cougars won the game 8 - 4.

Calgary doubles score on Movers

Calgary Mount Royal College Cougars scored three goals in the last 18 minutes of the third period to defeat the CAG Western Movers 8 - 4, Saturday night in the arena. Some 300 fans braved 15 below zero weather to watch two of the finest junior hockey teams in Alberta put on a good display of passing and skating.

Both teams play in the Alberta Junior Hockey League.

gave with Red Deer, Lethbridge, Drumheller, Calgary Canucks and Crossfont Motor Maple Leafs. Cougars lead the league by 15 points with Movers holding down fifth spot. The Cougars are an over age junior players team, and are not eligible for the league playoffs.

Bill Fraser and Cliff Hendrickson paced the Cougars with two each while Tom Ball, Jim Pratt, John Young and Rick Alexander added the others. Anderson is the league's top pointgetter.

Movers were led by Terry Evasiuk with a pair with Jim Miller and Laurent Genette getting the others. Cougars led throughout the game and referees Bill Bayck had no troubles with either team. Both clubs stayed strictly to hockey and put on a great match.

The Cougars must have been in the Christmas spirit as they could be heard singing carols in their dressing room between periods and at the end of the game.

A second junior game will be played here on New Year's Day when the Calgary Canucks play the Movers at 2 p.m. other. Bob Seguin scored for the Blazers.

On Monday, St. Albert Esso scored three goals in the third period to gain a 3-5 tie with the Kinsmen. Jamie Burton scored a hat trick for the Warriors with Tom White and Bert Calkins adding the other markers.

Father Joly, Joe Laplante, Len Dracoo, Ross Johnston and Fred Hoerber scored for the Esso Squad.

Calgary Power Kegs lead the St. Albert Men's Commercial League by a slim one point margin over the Kinsmen Warriors as the league takes a two week lay off for the Christmas holidays. Power Kegs have yet to lose a game, although they have played three tie games.

Last Thursday the Kinsmen Warriors scored a close 3 - 1 win over the Grandin Golf Blazers with Ron Vetsch scoring a pair and Tom White adding the

Read- LaPlante Spark Comets

Velara forwards Jim Read and Al Laplante scored three times in the third period last Friday night to give the Comets a 6 - 6 tie with the visiting Sherwood Park Barons. Laplante arrived just before the third period started and left little time before he made his presence known. With the Barons holding a commanding 6 - 3 lead early in the third period, Laplante was set up by Read at the 7:28 mark and the big winger made no mistake as he drilled a shot past the Barons goalie to put the Comets within two.

Less than a minute later Read was the trigger man with Laplante and Ray Lamer assisting and the Barons lead was now out to one goal. At the 10:12 mark Richie Perrault dug the puck out of the corner and fed a beautiful pass back to the point where Laplante drilled a tremendous slap shot that the Barons goalie didn't see and the Comets tied the game 6 - 6.

Comets came close on numerous occasions during the latter stages of the third but couldn't find the net. Jim Read fired two other goals in the second period to get his hat trick while Captain Fred Hesse added the other.

St. Albert netminder John Downes was named the most valuable player for the Comets as he made many excellent saves in the game. John Gallimore led the Barons scorers with two goals.

On Sunday the Comets travelled to Winterburn for a game with the Tomahawks and came away with a 6 - 3 drubbing. Terry Dube led the Comets with two goals with Bob Stevens picking up the other. Duane Klassen paced the Tomahawks with three goals.

Comets next home game will be this Friday when Ray's Esso come to town. Game time is 8 p.m.

On Sunday, Stony Plain Eagles will be here for their first meeting of the year against the Comets. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

He opened up the north with baling wire, canvas and courage - and maybe the thought of Lethbridge Old Style Pilsner waiting when he made it back home. Alberta's original Pilsner has logged a lot of miles and quenched a lot of thirsts in nearly fifty years; and it tastes as good today as it did way-back when. Slow-brewed and naturally aged for men who appreciate the down-to-earth flavour of an honest, old-time beer. Try it.

Eastglen rink tops

P.K. bonspiel

On December 4 Paul Kane held their annual invitational mixed bonspiel. The Bill McDonald rink from Eastglen High School won the first event and the Safeway Trophy that goes with it, while the Darrell Kramer rink from St. Albert High won the Kiwanis Trophy, a new trophy donated by the Kiwanis Club of St. Albert.

A film, The Silver Broom, was shown by the Kiwanis Club as well.

Even with today's inflation, Mrs. Kupsch and the members of the curling club were able to feed about 80 people for $15 thanks to the mothers who donated chili or salads. Mrs. Hart and Mr. Lois Hill came to the rink and helped organize the kitchen and the girls who helped serve. The entire spiel was organized by Mrs. Kupsch, Mr. Manson and Mr. Reid. The food was great, the prizes were better and a good time was had by all!

Organizers of the event gratefully acknowledge the support of the Klondike Inn and St. Albert Bakery.

THEN: This electric refrigerator wasn't beautiful, but it certainly "refrigerated". Remember that "icemaker" Solid ice! And the rest of the fridge would ice up too. The food was kept cool (sometimes too cool) for a power cost of

NOW: The latest models have separate doors for freezer and refrigerator. They keep better, softer. They even come in pretty colours. And the power cost is only

Sturgeon school division considering high school

Sturgeon School Division is studying the feasibility of establishing a centralized high school to serve the needs of all high school students in the division.

In August of this year the board instructed the superintendent to prepare a survey of the feasibility of establishing such a high school with particular emphasis on programs that might be available, anticipated costs, educational advantages and criteria for selecting a suitable location.

The survey, recently presented to the board, shows that Sturgeon Division will have, on the basis of present enrolments, a high school population of 725 students by the 1974-75 school year, and with allowances made for growth throughout the area a high school population of over 800 is anticipated by that same year.

The report shows that a high school population of this number would enable Sturgeon Division to operate a high school which would provide full academic, general and business education programs. A wide variety of courses would be available in both the industrial arts and home economics fields.

Presently, Sturgeon School Division does not operate any high schools, with high school students in the area being accommodated through tuition agreements with neighbouring school authorities. Sturgeon pupils attend the two St. Albert High Schools, M. E. La-Zerte Composite High School and St. Joseph's High School in Edmonton and Georges Vanier High School in Morinville.

The superintendent's report points out the difficulty of establishing a sound, well co-ordinated philosophy of education when control of high school services resides with several other boards.

The survey indicates that by having a centralized high school located within the division time spent on school buses would be reduced for many high school students.

The criteria as set out in the survey for the selection of a location for a centralized high school include nearness to present and projected high school populations, presence of good arterial roadways, a dependable source of water - preferably city water, and the availability of natural gas.

The Sturgeon Board is greatly concerned about educational costs and it is generally felt by board members that under the present Foundation Program Regulations and the rising costs of high school tuition, the division will be facing continuing financial problems in the years ahead.

The survey shows that under the new school foundation program formula introduced in 1970 savings could be realized in the board's total operating budget if all high school students were accommodated in a division-operated high school.

The board is continuing its study on the feasibility of establishing a centralized high school and Mr. J. McDonnell, chairman of the board, has indicated that all electors will be kept informed regarding future developments with respect to high school services.

Femmes Chretiennes have busy season

By Lucienne Montpetit
Les Femmes Chretiennes held their monthly meeting last Monday in Legal.

Following the spiritual part of the meeting the secretary read the minutes and the president expressed appreciation to all the ladies for their fine co-operation and help for the "Family Affair" night held in November.

A brief report on the Congress held in Mallala recently was given. Arrangements will be made to have the main address of the conference, given by Mrs. Laurence Farley and recorded on tape, played at the February meeting.

The social and entertainment committee was kept busy with their Christmas projects to provide entertainment and treats at the Auxiliary Hospital in Westlock and for the senior citizens at the Chateau Sturgeon.

The members agreed to buy Christmas flowers for the church, also to donate $100 to buy books for the library.

Les Femmes Chretiennes will sponsor again the blessing of the new born babies during the year 1971. This will be held in January.

Due to all the pre-festive activities it was suggested to have a "Sweetheart Night" social in February instead of a Christmas party.

Proceeding the adjournment of the meeting the ladies enjoyed themselves making Christmas candles.

The executive would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a Joyeux Noel and Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Will Baron weds Judy Chapman

By Liz McLeod
Judy Mae, only daughter of E. W. and Bertha Chapman, and William P. Baron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baron of Stony Plain were married Nov. 20.

On December 3, a gala evening of dancing, refreshments and midnight supper was held in Golden Spike Hall to honor the happy couple. Judy's cousin, Sharon McLeod and Will's cousin Bob Baron were the attendants. The bride looked lovely in her short white sheath dress; she wore a red sweetheart rose corsage.

Her bridesmaid was dressed in a blue dress with long cuffed sleeves and high neckline. The bride's mother chose a peach colored sheath. The groom's mother wore a blue dress; both had red rose corsages.

The wedding cake was made and decorated by the groom's sister Dorothy. The hall was decorated by his sister Lorraine.

More than 100 enjoyed friendly visiting at the Dec. 3 party.

On December 5 a shower was held for Judy at her Aunt Liz's. More than 40 guests enjoyed the afternoon and Judy received many lovely gifts.

NAMAOO

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Robertson upon the birth of a son, Robert Barnett, 5 lb. 11 oz. on Sunday, Dec. 12th.

The Namao Buttons and Bows 4H Clothing Club enjoyed a fun filled Christmas party in the Villeneuve Community Hall on Dec. 11 hosted by the Villeneuve 4H Clothing Club. Riviere Qui Barre, and Almondale 4H Clothing Clubs were also present. The afternoon was filled with singing, games and a visit from one of Santa's helpers.

The Namao district was saddened this week by the passing of Mr. Cecil Craig. Mr. Craig lived all his life in the district and will be greatly missed in the community. He leaves besides his wife Daisy, two daughters, Betty Lou Kindelman, and Margaret Nelsen; also four grandsons.

A dessert party was held in the community hall on Wednesday evening, Dec. 8 by the Namao UCW. Mr. Glen Park, United Church minister at Dawson Creek and formerly of Namao, had a large display of his beautifully hand printed pictures which were for sale. Mrs. Park displayed various articles of knitting. A sing song, led by Mrs. Ron Nelson, was enjoyed by all.

Library News

St. Albert library patrons, looking for something new or different to read, are invited to use the Readers Advisor, located in the reference section. These hefty volumes list the best books published and contain brief histories of the authors and descriptions of books. The local library stocks the most up-to-date issues of the Readers Advisor as well as a number of other book selection guides.

For enjoyable holiday reading, a list of the latest best sellers is posted at the desk. New arrivals in fiction include: Betsy, by Harold Robbins; Wheels, by Arthur Haley; Bear Island, by All-stair McLean and Message from Malaga, by Helen MacInnes.

For Canadians, the library suggests Possibilities of Canada are Truly Great, by Martin Nordegg. This is an account of the great period of mineral and railway development in Canada from 1906-24. This book should appeal to history buffs.

Also available is Bleeding Hearts-Bleeding Country by Dennis Smith. This controversial discussion of the Quebec crisis presents a strong case for fundamental change in Canadian thinking.

One of the most beautiful books ever published is Wilderness Canada by Borden Speer; a wealth of superb photographs.

Poverty Wall by Ian Adams will appeal to all concerned readers and Mordecai Richler's latest, St. Urbane's Horseman is also a popular addition.

Christmas hours at the St. Albert library will be announced in next week's Gazette.

Planning to give a pet for Christmas?

"No, don't do it; don't buy a puppy for your children unless you are prepared for the expense of injections and unless you intend to give it excellent care," advises Annemarie Elkins, dog control officer, Town of St. Albert.

Are you prepared to fully fence at least part of your yard? Which breed would be the best choice for your family? Have you thought about which sex the pup should be? Do you realize that neutering is much less expensive, and less complicated, on a young pup than on an older dog? Are you aware of the town bylaw which states that a female dog in heat (three weeks) cannot be taken out on your property at all if you do not have a fully closed-in fence at least five feet high? These are all points to ponder, suggests Mrs. Elkins.

"Oh, dad, baby dropped the puppy and its leg is hurt." So dad and the puppy rush off to the veterinarian; the pup's leg is broken. Every Christmas this happens to many pups -- a good number of them are crippled. Falls from furniture are common, too.

If your children are given a puppy, make sure that they understand that you expect them to play carefully with the little creature on the floor; not carry it about the house or street. Unless you instruct them, they will think of the pup as a toy to be mauled or dragged around by one foot instead of a living animal to be cherished and trained, Mrs. Elkins suggests.

"That dog is always so irritable," complains mother. If only parents would understand that puppies (like children) don't appreciate being constantly squeezed or tormented. The happy, loveable pup soon grows up to be an irritable dog under these conditions!

Asked for some pointers to help new puppy owners enjoy their pets more fully, Mrs. Elkins said: "Make sure the puppy is healthy, a check-up with Dr. Meltz, the St. Albert veterinarian, will verify this. If the dog has to be carried, support the hind legs and stomach with one hand and use the other hand to support the chest and front legs. Never carry a dog by the loose skin of the neck (like a cat), or pick it up by the front legs alone."

For residents of St. Albert who are not acquainted with the dog bylaw, Mrs. Elkins advises that dogs are not allowed to run at large, i.e. they should not be off your property without a family member.

"The careless attitude of those who let their dogs roam free may cause their pets to be poisoned, shot, killed by traffic or meet with some other misadventure. People begin to dislike dogs if they ruin their trees, grass or flowers -- can you blame them?", Mrs. Elkins added.

She suggests that dog owners have their phone numbers marked on their dog's collar. This will help return him if he should stray. Anyone wishing further information or advice about the care of dogs is most welcome to call Mrs. Elkins at 599-6788.

Mrs. Elkins wishes all new dog owners and their pets many years of happy companionship and a Merry Christmas to all.
